Former Trump aide Manafort found guilty on eight of 18 charges

Two of the most serious counts — bank fraud — carry a prison term of up to 30 years.

Former Trump campaign chairman Paul Manafort was found guilty on Tuesday on eight charges of tax and bank fraud and failing to disclose foreign bank accounts, after a jury said it could not reach consensus on the other 10 charges against him.

Jurors, after almost four days of deliberations, found Manafort guilty of two of nine bank fraud charges, all five tax fraud charges he faced and one of four charges of failing to disclose foreign bank accounts.

Judge T.S. Ellis declared a mistrial on 10 of the 18 counts, after the jury told him it could not reach a verdict on those charges.

Manafort stood quietly while the verdict was being read by the clerk. At the conclusion, the prosecutors hugged one another and then the prosecution and the defense shook hands.

Manafort's lawyer, Kevin Downing, told reporters afterward that his client was disappointed in the verdict and was evaluating his options.

The trial of Manafort, a veteran Republican operative, was the first stemming from Special Counsel Robert Mueller's investigation of Russia's role in the 2016 U.S. election. The charges against Manafort largely predate his work on President Donald Trump's successful campaign.

But the verdict appeared to be at least a partial victory for Mueller, whose probe Trump has repeatedly criticized.

Manafort's conviction on the eight counts came on the same day as Trump's former personal lawyer, Michael Cohen, pleaded guilty in New York to campaign finance violations and other charges.

Manafort was convicted on two of the most serious counts — bank fraud — each of which carries a prison term of up to 30 years. Reports say Manafort could face up to 80 years in prison.

Mark Warner, the senior Democrat on the U.S. Senate Intelligence Committee, said in a statement that the Manafort verdict refuted Trump's repeated charge that the investigation was a "witch hunt."

He warned that any attempt by Trump to use his presidential powers to pardon Manafort or interfere in Mueller's probe "would be a gross abuse of power and require immediate action by Congress."

In the Alexandria, Virginia, courtroom, Ellis gave the prosecution until Aug. 29 to decide whether to retry Manafort on the charges on which the jury deadlocked. As a result, the judge did not set a sentencing date for the other charges.

After the jury was dismissed, the judge told Manafort to stand at the podium and told him to help prepare the sentencing report. "The government and Mr. Manafort received very effective and zealous representation," the judge said. REUTERS

Paul Manafort mistrial: What does it mean?

Paul Manafort was convicted Tuesday of eight counts of federal crimes. The jury deadlocked on 10 other counts, leading the judge to declare a mistrial on those other charges.

The convictions were the first test of special counsel Robert Mueller's investigation and "may strengthen Mueller's hand as he continues to investigate possible conspiracy and seeks an interview with the president," The Washington Post said after the verdict. CNN called the convictions a "major victory for special counsel Robert Mueller."

A complete acquittal would have provided Trump's allies with ammunition to shut down the investigation, which some in the GOP have demanded for months.

"As a legal matter, this is a complete and total defeat for Manafort," tweeted former federal prosecutor Renato Mariotti. "He will get the same sentence that he would have received if he was convicted on all 18 counts. The number of counts of conviction doesn't impact federal sentencing." MICHAEL MARTIN

Cohen, in guilty plea, says made payments at candidate's direction

President Donald Trump's former personal lawyer, Michael Cohen, pleaded guilty in New York on Tuesday to campaign finance violations and other charges, saying he made payments to influence the 2016 election at the direction of a candidate for federal office.

The guilty pleas came in the same hour that a federal jury in Alexandria, Virginia, convicted former Trump campaign chairman Paul Manafort of eight charges of tax and bank fraud and failing to disclose foreign bank accounts.

Cohen, 51, appearing in federal court in Manhattan, pleaded guilty to one count of willfully causing an unlawful corporate campaign contribution and one count of making an excessive campaign contribution.

Cohen, one of Trump's closest associates for more than a decade, said he arranged to make payments "for [the] principal purpose of influencing [the] election" at the direction of a candidate for federal office. He did not give the candidate's name.

Porn star Stormy Daniels has said Cohen paid her $130,000 shortly before the November 2016 election to keep quiet about a 2006 sexual encounter with Trump.

In addition, Cohen recorded a conversation with Trump two months before the election in which they discussed buying the rights to a story by former Playboy model Karen McDougal, who said she had an affair with

Sentencing for Dec. 12 and set bail

Trump, lawyer Rudy Giuliani said last month.

Under U.S. election law, campaign contributions, defined as things of value given to a campaign in order to influence an election, must be disclosed. A payment intended to silence allegations of an affair just before an election could constitute a campaign contribution, some experts have said.

Cohen, who once said he would "take a bullet" for Trump, agreed to a plea bargain with federal prosecutors earlier Tuesday. He also pleaded guilty to five counts of tax fraud and one count of making false statements to a financial institution.

The plea deal includes a possible sentence of up to five years and three months in prison. Judge William Pauley III said during the hearing. Pauley scheduled sentencing for Dec. 12 and set bail at $500,000.

The probe also led to a referral from Mueller about Cohen to federal prosecutors in New York, who began their own probe of the attorney. REUTERS

Today's guilty verdicts against Trump campaign Chairman Paul Manafort & guilty plea by Trump's personal lawyer, Michael Cohen, are further evidence of the rampant #CultureOfCorruption & criminality at the heart of Trump's inner circle.

Merlin begins casting its spell on city blue-collar job seekers

The job recruitment platform aims to help hourly workers find jobs within close proximity to their homes.

Looking for new opportunities or employees on a job recruitment platform can be daunting for blue-collar workers — and employers. To stop the frustration on both sides of the hunt, Merlin is launching in New York City on Wednesday after more than a year of beta testing.

"Finding the right job and the right talent is still extremely hard today," said Guimar Vaca Sittic, CEO and co-founder of the job recruitment platform. "We spent three months talking with hourly workers to understand what their problems were and how difficult the problems were. It doesn't take long to see that the market is really broken."

Blue-collar workers' chief complaints about their experience on job recruitment sites were how long it took to find a job, fake jobs and location and commute times, Vaca Sittic said. Finding the right talent was the No. 1 issue for employers.

On Merlin, "you're not applying to jobs that might have been filled already or that you might not be qualified for," he said. "It's about building an experience tailor-made for you. We are very proud of the fact that today, it takes an average of 19 hours for a candidate to get connected to an employer — and know exactly what stage their application is."

While Merlin is launching only in New York City, "we're going to launch a second city toward the end of this year, most likely Philly, and then next year rolling out to the rest of the country," Vaca Sittic said.

Tattoo removal offered for sex trafficked and gang-involved youth

A free program from ACS will help young New Yorkers heal after escaping their traffickers or gangs.

KRISTIN TOUSSAINT
kristin.toussaint@metro.us

New York City is giving youth who have been sex trafficked or involved in gangs a fresh start with a free gang tattoo removal pilot program out of the Administration for Children's Services.

The NYC agency announced the launch of the program this week, called the NYC Child Tattoo Eradication Network. The initiative is meant to help young New Yorkers heal from trauma and move on with their lives after escaping from traffickers or gangs.

Gang tattoos may be removed for free, thanks to a new ACS program. GETTY IMAGES

Gang leaders and sex traffickers sometimes tattoo young people, according to the Administration for Children's Services, with symbols like "dollar signs on their faces, pimps' names on their chests or backs, or gang names on their hands or bodies."

When these young New Yorkers escape that situation, they often don't have the resources to remove the tattoos and start fresh. Removing these brandings can help these youth heal from their trauma and well as open up employment opportunities, experts say.

A 2017 NYC Safe Harbor Program report identified just under 3,000, New York City youth as sex trafficked or at-risk for trafficking — a 21 percent increase from the year prior.

Doctors Urge Knee Pain Sufferers

“Don’t Get ANY Surgery Until You See This...”

After Years Of Intense Study, NYC Medical Clinic Finally Reveals It’s Best “Treatment Formula” For Helping Knee Arthritis Sufferers... Especially When So Many Other Treatments Have Failed

NEW YORK CITY - If you are even remotely interested in discovering how the latest scientific discoveries can possibly help your knee pain... then this is going to be the most exciting information you ever read.

Here is why: Knee pain can not only be brutal... it’s complex. In other words, it’s not a simple, easy fix.

But I’m sure you already know that. Or you wouldn’t be reading this.

That’s the bad news.

Now for some good news...

Over the years, NYC Pain MD has treated countless knee pain sufferers. And in that time have been able to constantly improve.

And we have come up with a treatment formula that we have found works best and helps the most patients.

This formula has reduced or even eliminated the pain in many. Some were scheduled for knee replacement surgery and felt good enough to cancel their surgery.

It’s amazing when patients who were once in excruciating pain... start feeling better. And start walking again. And playing golf. Or tennis. And finally getting their lives back.

Especially when they had gone to other doctors and tried so many other things.

So many had given up hope.

Sound familiar? If it does... check this out...

The Treatment Formula

While I can’t give you the entire treatment formula here (there is not enough space and WAY too complicated ) I can give you the basics. And more important... I can tell you what it might be able to do for YOU.

The first and most important part of the formula is: PATIENT SELECTION.

This means, NYC Pain MD has a detailed screening process to tell who is most likely to be helped by their treatments... and who is not.

If you qualify, you have the opportunity to move forward and experience the worldclass treatments that NYC Pain MD offers.

If you do not, NYC Pain MD will tell you what they think your best options are and help you find the right doctor for you.

NYC Pain MD “Treatment Formula” A protocol of advanced medical treatments that has already helped thousands.

If you qualify, NYC Pain MD offers some of the most advanced medical treatments available today all using the most advanced imaging technology including:

- Viscosupplementation (gel injections)
- Platelet Rich Plasma (PRP)
- Stem Cell Therapy (Lipogems)
- Genicular Knee Block
- And more.

Once again, there is not enough space to go into detail about all these procedures... but here are some things you MUST KNOW...

Viscosupplementation is where a doctor introduces a gel-like medicine directly into the joint space. This helps to lubricate the joints often relieving some, most or even all of your pain. Results can last for 6 months to several years.

Many have had these treatments without good results. However, NYC Pain MD feels this is because doctors often do these “gel injections” without advanced imaging to guide them. Research shows they will often miss the joint. If the joint is missed... it is impossible for the treatment to work.

NYC Pain MD has spared no expense and used advanced imaging to guide the injections assuring the medicine gets into the joint. We frequently get results when this treatment was a failure done elsewhere.

The second thing you must know is... our treatment plans are custom made for every patient. And we have all these treatments offered in the same place. Many times you will get the best results from multiple treatments. At NYC Pain MD your doctors will all be there and will all know each other and you and your case. They work together and give you the best treatments and care without you having to go anywhere else.

The ability to select the right patients and then have the potential to give them any or all of these treatments... with all the necessary medical technology... under one roof... has allowed NYC Pain MD to get better results than they thought possible.

Here’s What You Should Do Next

If you suffer with knee pain... and any of this made sense to you... NYC Pain MD would like to offer you a No-cost screening. That screening is the first step in our “Treatment Formula.”

You will get to see a doctor and ask any questions you have. Your doctor will take the first steps to see if you qualify for treatments and give you recommendations.

The best thing is... you will finally get direction. You will know what’s going on and what is your best course of action... step-by-step. The treatments will be explained in detail and you will breathe a big sigh of relief finally knowing what’s going on and what can or cannot be done.

There is so much we want to say to help you... but I’m out of space. Give us a call at 877-296-6310 and take the first step. That step is free without obligation.

THE FASTEST RENTER GETS THE APARTMENT!

Finding a decent apartment is hard. There aren't a lot of them — weird floor plans, lack of natural light, showers in the kitchen and other miseries. And that's before figuring in your commute, nearby amenities, etc. But eventually, you find it. It's probably not perfect, but it ticks enough boxes and you've seen enough places and the deadline is looming, so you say yes. Ah, but it's not a done deal. Now comes the Amazing Race portion. # Brendan Gleeson talks 'Mr. Mercedes' and ice cream trucks

The Irish actor best known for "In Bruges" and "Harry Potter" stars in another Stephen King adaptation.

ANDREW HUSBAND
letters@metro.us

While discussing the second season of "Mr. Mercedes" over the phone with star Brendan Gleeson, an ice cream truck surprised the Irish actor.

"Oh geez," he exclaims. "An ice cream truck just went by while we were talking here, which is a little bit eerie. I suspect Brady would have tried to stick his little head out the window and do something nasty. That was honestly quite bizarre."

The "Brady" Gleeson refers to is Brady Hartsfield, the show's titular serial killer as played by English actor Harry Treadaway. The new season picks up where last year left off, with, Gleeson's character Bill Hodges suffering a heart attack and Treadaway undergoing an invasive hospital procedure as a result of their final confrontation.

While the retired detective turned private investigator endures physical rehabilitation, the killer remains comatose.

And this is where things take an interesting turn, because Gleeson has previously said he's "not big on the supernatural." Unlike most Stephen King-inspired fare, like the 2017 film adaptation of "It" and Hulu's "Castle Rock," the first season of "Mr. Mercedes" is entirely devoid of the more fanciful story elements typically associated with the author. Season two, however, is not.

"Mr. Mercedes" returns tonight. AT&T Audience Network

"I was a little worried that we shouldn't stretch too far away from the original themes. That was my main take on it, as long as we could keep it anchored to the real world,"

Gleeson explains. "I think we've done that in this series. Yes, there were those typical aspects of the King books, and I was a little afraid it would take off into a place that became removed from the everyday that we understand."

"I think Bill Hodges became a little bit of a mouth piece for that," he continues. "I fulfilled that function in the second series, of kind of grounding it, and saying there's only so much I would believe without absolute evidence. So that was a really interesting start of a journey, because it reflects Bill's own sense of being prepared to believe anything when the evidence becomes overwhelming, but always waiting until that point."

"Mr. Mercedes" season two premieres Wednesday at 10 p.m. on the AT&T Audience Network.

- Mushroom Sherry Cottage Pie
- Vanilla Bean Flan
- Salted Caramel Harvest Apple Pie
- Nutella Angel Cream Pie

Summer is almost over, which means it's just about time for pie season — we mean, autumn. French-born chef Dominique Ansel may have grown up around tarts, but he's been turning out better pies than your American granny since starting Pie Night at Dominique Ansel Kitchen in 2015. And your chance at Pie Night 2018 tickets is almost here.

The deal is unlimited slices of pie — 10 kinds, evenly split between sweet and savory options, including two vegetarian pies — to be enjoyed on the patio of Ansel's West Village bakery. There will be apple cider sangria to welcome you (and more throughout the night) and a little treat to take with you for later.

This year, he's added a fourth week of Pie Nights, not that that will stop them from selling out almost immediately. The dates are: Sept. 12-13, 19-20, 26-27 and Oct. 3-4. Each evening has three one-hour seatings: 7 p.m., 8:15 p.m. and 9:30 p.m.

A couple of tips to get the most out of your Pie

Night: Arrive early, load up on savory pies on your first pass (they're the fastest to go), and politely decline the free ice cream to make it à la mode when one of Ansel's friendly staffers comes around — you need that belly space for more pie.

Tickets are $55 per person and go on sale Friday, Aug. 24 at noon via Resy. EVA KIS

Fantasy football advice

A look at the fantasy prospects of Barkley and Darnold.

JOE PANTORNO
joseph.pantorno@metro.us

For New York Giants and Jets fans that are looking to draft some of their favorite players — and we all have that one friend that tries to draft every player from their favorite team — there is some big-time talent for the taking that will be put on display at MetLife Stadium this Autumn. Here is what you can expect from Saquon Barkley and Sam Darnold.

Saquon Barkley
For a team that has had one of the worst rushing attacks in football over the past few seasons, Barkley is a godsend to the Giants offense. The Penn State product was considered the best-overall talent of the 2018 draft class thanks to his blend of strength, vision and speed.

He gave the football world an early preview with his first carry of the preseason against the Cleveland Browns when he ripped open a 39-yard run that was generated by a pair of patient cuts in the backfield before exploiting the hole.

Fantasy Projections: 1,104 rushing yards, 7 rushing TD's, 55 receptions, 428 receiving yards, 2 receiving TD's, 207.3 points

Sam Darnold
While quarterbacks usually start going off the board in the fourth, fifth or sixth rounds, Jets passer Sam Darnold likely won't be going that high, at least for the moment.

It is uncertain whether the new Jets quarterback, who is tabbed as the organization's best hope under center since Joe Namath, will be the man starting come Week 1 considering he'll have to beat out veterans Josh McCown and Teddy Bridgewater this preseason.

Fantasy Projections: 142 completions, 1,587 yards, 9 passing TD's, 8 INT's, 85.8 points
